The History of Quilting and Modern Quilts Presented by Gail Thompson

Sunday, May 19 @ 2PM

With more than two decades of experience in sewing and quilting, Ms. Thompson delves into its rich history. She showcases various historical quilt blocks, exploring how women and quilting intersect throughout different historical periods and the significance of quilts in colonial times. The presentation also touches on the Singer Sewing Company and the largest quilt contest ever sponsored by Sears and Roebuck Company. Discover the history of women's handwork and Ms. Thompson's personal modern quilts, along with insights into different quilting techniques that she has mastered. While many in the audience may not sew or quilt, they will find the subject intriguing and enjoy admiring the quilts on display!

Registration is required.

Sketchbook Journaling

Thursday, May 23rd @ 7PM

May is Mental Health Month. Journaling and making art are effective ways to work through some tough times. This program will help you get over the initial pressure of working in a brand new sketchbook. We will create some pages for you to start your sketchbook journal journey!

Registration is required.
